The Order of Service

Ehnoira Taylor Darby was born on September 11, 1932 in Bolingbroke, Georgia, to the late Mary Taylor Keith. She answered God's call and departed this life on Monday, February 19, 2018.

Ehnoira Darby joined Mt. Zion Baptist Church in Bolingbroke, Georgia at a young age. She knew the Lord and had unwavering faith. Her daily prayer was the 23rd Psalms.

On March 12, 1955, Ehnoira Taylor married Charlie "Ed" Darby in Forsyth, Georgia. They had a wonderful life together of 47 years. Her husband preceded her in death on January 21, 2003.

Her family was her life. She enjoyed every day that she had with them. They were her sunshine and they brighten her days. She enjoyed going on long drive throughout the state of Michigan and Ohio. She enjoyed the spirit of holidays and Sunday dinners. But most of all, she enjoyed that good old gospel music.

In 2017, she had a longing in her heart to go home to Georgia one more time. God blessed her to traveled twice, once in May and again in August.

Her memories will be cherished forever by her six daughters and two sons; Mary Ann Boyd, Milledgeville, GA, Frances Mae Ussey, Macon, GA, Queen Ann Virginia Williams (Alvin) of Culloden, GA, Clara, Marchita, Angela, Charlie Ed Jr. and Leslie Darby of Detroit, MI, 8 Grandchildren, Mary Frances Taylor, Alma Louise Calhoun, Danita Taylor, Bobby Evans, Albertina Ussey all of Macon, GA Brittany, Tiffany and Dominique Darby of Detroit, MI, One sister Addie Pope of Macon, GA and one aunt, Mammie Taylor of Macon, GA. and a host of great, great grandchildren. Last but not least, her loving cousin Eola Johnson.

23rd Psalms

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. 2) He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters. 3) He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the path of righteousness for his name's sake. 4) Yea though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. 5) Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine
